The Organ Resounding 2014 – Slaný and Sedlčany

The Organ Resounding 2014, Slaný–Velvary–Zlonice & Petrovice and Dolní Hbity. The fifth year of the International Organ Festival will happen thanks to a grant from the Rural Development Programme of the Czech Republic. The grant was acquired by Přemyslovské střední Čechy, o. p. s. in cooperation with MAS Sedlčansko, o. p. s. The partners of this project are the Royal Town of Slaný and village Petrovice. Therefore, this time we can not only introduce the remarkable organs around Slaný (Slaný, Velvary, Zlonice) but also around Sedlčany (Petrovice and Dolní Hbity) both at major concerts – after the registration, there is an opportunity to visit one concert in the area of Sedlčany for those from Slaný and vice versa – and also during the trailing of the organs in both regions. Financed from the grant, there will also be two large-scale restorations of the organs in Zlonice and Petrovice near Sedlčany – and both repaired instruments will be, of course, heard at the festival concerts.

The festival concerts will feature not only world-renowned foreign artists, but also an excellent Czech organists, representing concert organists of all generations. Each concert of the festival has its own dramaturgy and specific focus. In addition to the organs, you will also hear interesting and not commonly used instruments, musical styles and techniques.

Festival will be launched by a day trip – Trailing the organs around Slaný – when we visit four places around Slaný and will familiarize ourselves with other interesting instruments. The festival will conclude with a similar trip – Trailing the organs around Sedlčany. Every registered participant will at the end of the trip receive free commemorative graphic with a theme of organs in Slaný and Sedlčany from the graphic artists Milan Bauer.

Exchange concerts – after registration, visitors of the concert tour around Sedlčany can attend the concert in Velvary and vice versa, participants from Slaný can come to the concert in Petrovice near Sedlčany.

Renowned and sensitive approach of all performers to the technical and sound disposition of the instruments, along with thoughtful dramaturgy of the festival concerts, promises a unique musical experience.

----- ADMISSION TO ALL EVENTS AND CONCERTS OF THE FESTIVAL IS FREE! -----

A free of charge transport will be provided from Slaný to concerts in Zlonice and Velvary. The departure is one hour before the concert from the stop „ U Váhy“ in Šultysova street in Slaný.

At the festival concerts, we will use two cameras to transmit the image from the organ loft. From the comfort of benches in the nave you will be able to watch the artists at play in the organ loft. Do not miss this experience!

As in previous years, the festival concerts will be recorded, and the recordings will be used for the three CD compilation which will be released by the end of 2014. (CD Organ Resounding 2001, 2009, 2011, 2012)

The festival will happen thanks to the generous support of the parishes of the Archdiocese of Prague – Slaný, Zlonice, Smečno, Petrovice u Sedlčan, Krásná Hora nad Vltavou and Maková-Smolotely.
